Dear Mrs. Smith:

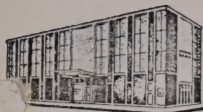

I am indeed happy to get your letter concerning the Pittman family. I know very little about my father's family and have been trying to find out all I can about them. I hope you will forgive the slowness in answering your letter.

First, let me answer some of your questions: Yes, Nelson, Sam, Albert, Jennie and Alice were brothers and sisters of my grandfather, William. I know very little about Nelson and Albert. Sam, Jennie and Alice all lived at Plainville, Kansas. When they moved there I do not know but I am of the opinion that at least Sam and Alice took out homesteads there. The Wilbur Bright you mention is the son of Alice. The Maggie Copper you mention, who is buried on the Pittman lot, is also the daughter of Alice. I cannot answer your question as to the "L.R." buried on the same lot could be. I was not aware that there was nother grave on the lot.

William and Sylvania Pittman moved to Rooks County, Kansas, some time in the 1880's. I am told that William bought out a homesteader about two or three miles west of Plainville where they lived until Sylvania's death. This land was just east of where Sam Pittman homesteaded. According to the records I have, my father, Elmer, was born in Bartholomew County near Columbus, Ind., on March 27, 1882. I have no record of either the birth date nor date of death of Bertie. I believe she was a year or so younger than my father. I assume the reason William and Sylvania moved there was the fact that the other brothers and sisters were already there.

After Sylvania's death, William, my grandfather, moved to Linneus, Linn County, Mo. He married a woman by the name of Lucy Cubberly (no dates available). I am sure that Lucy is buried at or near Linneus, Mo. Lucy raised my father and Bertie and was about the only Mother they knew. Late in life he re-married. I don't have the name of this third wife nor do I know anything about her family. I do know that she kept or destroyed almost everything about our family before we could get it. That is the reason I have very little information about the Pittman family.

William died and is buried at Linneus, Mo. I do not know the exact date but I think it must have been in about 1935. I remember Lucy quite well but she died when I was quite young. William lived at Linneus, Mo., until his death with the exception of a short time he lived with my family in Greensburg, Kansas.

Greensburg STATE Bank

GREENSBURG, KANSAS

Now, to the things which I do know for sure. Elmer Lonzo Pittman was born near Columbus, Ind., on March 27, 1882, and died at Greensburg, Kansas, on April 16, 1960. He married Nettie Catherine Harter at Linneus, Mo., on Jan. 8, 1905. I am enclosing a couple of pages from the Harter Family tree which will give you further dates etc.

My brother, Ralph Allen Pittman (note the middle name) was born in Linneus, Mo., on Nov. 25, 1905. Shortly thereafter my father and mother moved to Larned, Kansas, where he worked on a ranch. When Ralph was about three or four years of age, they moved back to Linneus, Mo., driving a team and covered wagon. I have a picture of mother, father and my brother with the team and wagon.

I was born at Linneus, Mo., on March 18, 1910. Now about the names, Ralph and Karl. Uncle Sam Pittman always said that we were named after his two boys but my father always denied the story. He said that he knew very little about Sam's family at that time. When I was less than a year old, my father moved his family to Plainville, Kansas, where we lived until 1924. At that time we moved to Greensburg, Kansas, where both my father and mother died. My brother, Ralph, lives in Dodge City, Kansas. The family tree will give you dates etc. concerning his family.

Bertie Pittman married Leonard Grice at Linneus, Mo. They had four children, three girls and a boy. The boy is deceased. I hear from the girls frequently, in fact one of the girls, Geneva, called me just a short time ago and she is also trying to find information about the Pittman family. Perhaps we can fill in some gaps for her and I know she can fill in a few for us.

I am very much interested in the Allen family history. I remember my father writing to Uncle Joshua many times. I am also interested in the Pittman history. I would like to know the names and dates of the parents of my Grandfather, William. Also I would like to know about the family of my great-grandfather's family, brothers, sisters etc. There is a story that two of great-grandfather's brothers went to the east coast, Virginia or North Carolina, and set up a saw mill. If this is true, we have some very wealthy relatives in Fayetteville, N.C., as the town is practically owned by Pittmans who made their money in the lumber business.

If there are further questions which I might be able to answer, please let me know. I will be in contact with the daughter of Bertie and if she has any information I will pass it along. Please let me hear from you again.

Sincerely,

Karl E. Pittman

LIFE AND TIMES OF
RALPH ALLEN PITTMAN

Twenty-third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he lead-eth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for though art
with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

Ralph was born on November 25, 1905, near Linneus, Linn County, Missouri. Sometime after the birth of Ralph, his parents took him and left for the greener pastures of Kansas, in search of work. Elmer, Ralph's father, found work as a farmer, in Pawnee County, Kansas, and they lived there for about a year. After that year, they hitched up the covered wagon, and returned to Linn County, apparently to farm. When Ralph was almost five years old, his younger brother, Karl, was born, which prompted his father to pull up stakes, again, and they boarded a train and went west, bound for Plainville, in Rooks County, Kansas. Once again, he took up farming, west of town, close to the plot that Ralph's grandfather, William Alexander, had homesteaded.

They rented a farm there, and Ralph started school in Plainville, where he was destined to graduate. In 1919, just before Ralph started high school, they rented a ranch south of town, where Ralph and Karl grew up and traveled to school the best way they knew how. After Ralph graduated from high school, in 1923, he went to work for the Union Pacific Railroad, out of Salina, Kansas, as a clerk. In 1924, the family moved to Hays, Kansas, and Elmer obtained a job with The Hays Flour Mill. Ralph attended college at Kansas State Teacher's College, located in Hays, before the whole family moved, again. This time to Greensburg, Kiowa County, Kansas, in 1925, where Elmer secured a job with The White Eagle Oil Company.

In Greensburg, Ralph got a job with the city water department, then on to bookkeeping for various businesses, then, a job with Fleener's Furniture and Mortuary. Finally, he went to work with Tucker's Chevrolet dealership. He met Marjorie Eileen Olson, whose father was a homesteader in Kiowa County, Kansas, and an immigrant from Denmark, living at that time in Greensburg. Ralph and Marjorie were married July 13, 1928, in Greensburg. Shortly after, they moved to Cimarron, Gray County, Kansas, where Ralph worked for the Crawford Chevrolet dealership. Sometime in 1929, they took up residence in Dodge City, Ford County, Kansas, where their three children, Darrell, Ramona, and Elizabeth, were born. Ralph took up the game of golf, and soon became an avid golfer, playing in many tournaments and winning quite a few. He was also the tuba player in the Dodge City Municipal Band for many years. Ralph worked for the City of Dodge City, starting as the City Water Clerk, then as the City Clerk, until after the end of World War II. While occupying the office of City Clerk, he initiated, and followed through, on negotiations and a trade with Ford County officials, for land east of town, to build a municipal airport, for Dodge City. He also belonged to the local Kiwanis Club, and was the Secretary of the Dodge City Chamber of Commerce. In the winter of 1939-40, he decided to take up flying, and was a pilot in the Civil Air Patrol during World War II.

After World War II, Ralph went on to bigger and better things. He was hired as Station Agent for Continental Air Lines, and managed the station for about five years. In 1949, Ralph was offered, and accepted, a position, as secretary, for the Ford County Building and Loan, and Dodge City Abstract Company, which he held until his retirement in 1970. He joined the Dodge City Country Club, and was the secretary for the club, for many years. Ralph enjoyed life in Dodge City, Kansas.

Ralph was preceded in death by his wife of 63½ years, Marjorie Eileen, who died May 4, 1992, his parents and a great-granddaughter, Faith Noelle Hutton.

Rejoicing in his life and love are: son Darrell K. and wife Carolyn of Thornton, Colorado; daughter Ramona and husband Neil Hutton of Dodge City; daughter Bette and husband Ed Chuhta of Littleton, Colorado; his six grandchildren, Jeff and Jenny Hutton, Todd and Julie Hutton, Kyle Hutton, Jesse Chuhta, Debe and Gene Staten, and Cathi and Lin Evans; his eleven great-grandchildren, Maranda Hutton, Matraca Hutton, Bradley Hutton, Chelsea Hutton, Erica Hutton, Kailey Hutton, Rebecca Staten, Caleb Staten, Amanda Evans, Aaron Evans, and Gregory Evans. His survivors also include his brother, Karl E. Pittman of Greensburg, Kansas, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

IRWIN HOME, COLUMBUS, IND.

Columbus, Ind., Historic Tour Is Oct. 14

Four 19th Century historic homes in Columbus, Ind., and Bartholomew County will be open to the public Oct. 14, in the annual Historic Homes Tour sponsored by the Bartholomew County Historical Society. Hours will be noon to 6 p.m. E.S.T. (Irwin home open 1 to 6 p.m.)

Also planned is a walking tour of the historic downtown district, exhibits of sketches, paintings and furniture from the Bartholomew County of yesterday.

The four homes to be featured in the tour are significantly different:

Dent-Woolfolk House has been transformed from a neglected country schoolhouse to a charming seven-room residence. Ward Salmond built twin houses on Mechanic Street in 1883. The carpenter's cottage was recently remodeled by Don Mellencamp but retains original window glass, door knobs, porch posts and decorative cornices and is tastefully furnished to its period.

Materials and workmanship was to be the best, when David Aikens contracted with Keller and Brockman for a fine brick home in 1877. Walls are nine inches thick, and the poplar floors and walnut staircase handrail reveal the quality of the builders' agreement.

Mrs. Clementine Tange-man owns the home built in 1864 by her great-grandfather, Joseph I. Irwin. Original style was Neapolitan Classic, but around 1884, it was enlarged and redesigned in the Victorian style, and a Saracen tower was added for the use of bachelor William G. Irwin. Pompeian gardens were added to the site in 1910.

Tour goers are also invited to an Autumn Brunch, served at the Columbus Visitors Center from 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (tickets $4 for adults, $2 for children 10 and under).

Tour tickets are available from the Bartholomew County Historical Museum, 524 Third Street, Columbus, IN 47201. Prices are $3.50 in advance, $5 on day of the tour. A brochure with map will enable patrons to cover the tour in their own car.

Allen*, being duly sworn, say, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the foregoing statement contains a true, full and complete list of all property held or belonging to me, and dogs owned, kept or harbored by me, on the first day of April, including all personal property, appertaining to merchandising, whether held in actual possession or only having been purchased with a view to possession or profit, and all personal property appertaining to manufacturing, and all manufactured articles, whether on hand or owned by me. STATE OF INDIANA,
BROWN County, ss:
Wm B Allen
 being duly sworn, say, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the foregoing statement contains a true and complete list of all property held or belonging to me, and dogs owned, kept or harbored by me, on the first day of April, including all personal property, appertaining to merchandising, whether held in actual possession or only having been purchased with a view to possession or profit, and all personal property appertaining to manufacturing, and all manufactured articles, whether on hand or owned by me. In all cases where I have been unable to exhibit certain classes of property to the Assessor, such property has been fully and fairly described, and its true condition and value represented. That I have in no case sought to mislead the Assessor, as to either quantity or quality or value of property, and that the deductions claimed from credits are bona fide debts for a consideration received and do not consist in any part in bonds, notes or obligations of any kind given to any insurance company on account of premium or policies, nor on account of any unpaid subscription to any literary, scientific or charitable institution or society, nor on account of any subscription to, or indebtedness payable on capital stock of any company, whether incorporated or unincorporated; and that no part of said indebtedness has been paid; and I further swear that since the first day of April of last year, I have not directly or indirectly, converted or exchanged any of my property temporarily, for the purpose of evading the assessment thereof for taxes, into non-taxable property, or securities of any kind. I further swear that I have to the best of my knowledge and judgment valued said property at its true cash value, by which I mean the usual selling price, being the price which could be obtained for said property at private sale, and not at forced or auction sale.

OIL AND GAS LEASE

Short Form No. 88

AGREEMENT, Made and entered into the 4 day of May 1966, by and between Ray E. Miller, married, Dorothy Pearl Miller, his wife hereinafter called lessor (whether one or more), and James P. Miller, Grandson of of 708 West Cherry St. Chicago, Ill. hereinafter called lessee:

WITNESSETH: That the said lessor, for and in consideration of One DOLLARS cash in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and of the covenants and agreements hereinafter contained on part of lessee to be paid, kept and performed, has granted, demised, leased and let, and by these presents does grant, demise, lease and let unto the said lessee for the sole and only purpose of mining and operating for oil and gas and of laying pipe lines and of building tanks, power stations, and structures thereon to produce, save and take care of said products, all that certain tract of land situated in the County of Crawford State of Illinois described as follows, to-wit:

(2 1/2) Two and one half acres out of the northeast corner of the West half of the Southeast quarter Section 18, Township 6, North Range 13, West, containing 2 1/2 acres more or less.

IT IS AGREED that this lease shall remain in force for a term of Six months from this date, and as long thereafter as oil or gas, or either of them, is produced from said land by lessee. In consideration of the premises the said lessee covenants and agrees:

1st. To deliver to the credit of lessor, free of cost into tank reservoirs or into the pipe line to which lessee may connect wells on said land, the equal one-eighth (1/8) part of all oil produced and saved from the leased premises.

2nd. To pay lessor one-eighth (1/8) of the gross proceeds each year, payable quarterly for the gas from each well where gas only is found, while the same is being used off the premises, and if used in the manufacture of gasoline, a royalty of one-eighth (1/8) payable monthly at the prevailing market rate for gas; and the lessor to have gas free of cost from any such well for all stoves and all inside lights in the principal dwelling on said land during the same time by making lessor's own connections with the well at lessor's own risk and expense.

3rd. To pay lessor for gas produced from any oil well and used off the premises or in the manufacture of gasoline or any other product a royalty of one-eighth (1/8) of the proceeds, payable quarterly at the prevailing market rate at the mouth of the well.

If no well be commenced on said land on or before the 4 day of November, 1966, this lease shall terminate as to both parties. If the lessee shall commence to drill a well within the term of this lease or any extension thereof, the lessee shall have the right to drill such well to completion with reasonable diligence and dispatch, and if oil or gas, or either of them be found in paying quantities, this lease shall continue and be in force with like effect as if such well had been completed within the term first mentioned.

If said lessor owns a less interest in the above described land than the entire and undivided fee simple estate therein, then the royalties herein provided for shall be paid by said lessor only in the proportion which lessor's interest bears to the whole and undivided fee.

Lessee shall have the right to use, free of cost, gas, oil, and water produced on said land for lessee's operations thereon except water from the wells of lessor.

When requested by lessor, lessee shall bury lessee's pipe line below plow depth.

No well shall be drilled nearer than 200 feet to the house or barn now on said premises without written consent of lessor.

Lessee shall pay for damages caused by lessee's operations to growing crops on said lands.

Lessee shall have the right at any time to remove all machinery and fixtures placed on said premises, including the right to draw and remove casing.

Lessee is hereby given the right and power to pool or combine the acreage covered by this lease or any portion thereof with other land, lease or leases in the immediate vicinity thereof, when in lessee's judgment it is necessary or advisable to do so in order properly to develop and operate said premises in compliance with the spacing rules of any lawful authority, or when to do so would,
in the judgment of lessee, promote the conservation of oil and gas in and under and that may be produced from said premises.
Lessee shall execute in writing an instrument identifying and describing the pooled acreage. The entire acreage so pooled into a tract or unit shall be treated, for all purposes except the payment of royalties on production from the pooled unit, as if it were included in this lease. If production is found on the pooled acreage, it shall be treated as if production is had from this lease, whether the well or wells be located on the premises covered by this lease or not. In lieu of the royalties elsewhere herein specified, lessor shall receive on production from a unit so pooled only such portion of the royalty stipulated herein as the amount of his acreage placed in the unit or his royalty interest therein bears to the total acreage so pooled in the particular unit involved.

If the estate of either party hereto is assigned—and the privilege of assigning in whole or in part is expressly allowed—the covenants hereof shall extend to their heirs, executors, administrators, successors or assigns, but no change in the ownership of the land or assignment of royalties shall be binding on the lessee until after the lessee has been furnished with a written transfer or assignment or a true copy thereof. If the leased premises are now or shall hereafter be owned in severalty or in separate tracts, the premises nevertheless, shall be developed and operated as one lease, and all royalties accruing hereunder shall be treated as an entirety and shall be divided among and paid to such separate owners in the proportion that the acreage owned by each such separate owners bears to the entire leased acreage.

Lessor hereby warrants and agrees to defend the title to the said lands herein described, and agrees that the lessee shall have the right at any time to redeem for lessor, by payment, any mortgages, taxes, or other liens on the above described lands, in the event of default of payment by lessor and be subrogated to the rights of the holder hereof, and the undersigned lessors, for themselves, their heirs, successors and assigns, hereby surrender and release all rights of dower and homestead in the premises herein described insofar as said right of dower and homestead may in any way affect the purpose for which this lease is made as recited herein.

TO MY FRIEND JESS

History books will never print
Your name - I doubt you'll ever make any Hall of Fame.
Your antics are known both far
And near - And there's times
We doubted you'd live the year.
But another birthday has come and Gone at last, Boy how time flies
When you live so fast.

I didn't get you a present and doubt if I will . . .
They don't have a gift
for a guy over the hill!
So be a good boy Jess and
You'll have nothing to fear;
With your luck and our wishes,
You'll live lots more years.

Union seeks review of Romney event at Ohio mine

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) A union asked Ohio and federal labor officials on Wednesday to investigate whether a company violated federal wage and hour laws when it shuttered its coal mine to host a campaign event for Republican presidential nominee Mitt Romney.

Murray Energy Corp. said it closed its mine in eastern Ohio for one shift during the Aug. 14 event to ensure the site's security. Coal workers were not paid while the Century Mine in Beallsville was closed.

A Secret Service spokesman on Wednesday said it did not request the mine's closure during Romney's visit.

Service Employees International Union, District 1199, has taken issue with comments the company's chief financial officer made to a West Virginia radio station following the campaign event.

Robert Moore, who also is the company's executive vice president, told WWVA in a recent interview that managers "communicated to our workforce that the attendance at the Romney event was mandatory but no one was forced to attend the event."

The station asked Moore why the company didn't pay the coal workers.

"As a private employer, it was our decision," Moore said. "And we made the decision not to pay the people for the day."

Moore said repeatedly in the interview that workers weren't required to go to the political rally, which the Pepper Pike-based company emphasized in a written statement on Wednesday.

"All participation was, and always has been, completely voluntary," Moore said.

A judge in Dayton on Tuesday sentenced Raleigh Trammell, 74, to prison in Montgomery County. Trammell was a leader of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which had a contract with the city to provide meals to low-income people. He was sentenced to $38,000 to the Dayton group home. He was delivered between 2005 and 2007 by contractors, who say they did not receive the money. A jury in June found him guilty of including one count of grand larceny and tampering with evidence.

One of Trammell's attorneys said they plan to file an appeal.

"There are many legal issues in this appeal," he said.

The defense has argued that the Dayton chapter are guilty of the same errors.

While prosecutors have argued that the $38,000 went to the Dayton chapter, they said Trammell signed contracts with the city to provide meals.

Another of Trammell's attorneys said that Trammell was in charge of programming and delegating the meals. He also said after the verdict that there was not enough evidence to appeal.

Two of the people who were killed, two had never been in the long-term care facilities, according to prosecutors.

ST. PARIS – This year's Pony Wagon Days grand marshal is no stranger to St. Paris' main festival.

Fonda Lou Eaton remembers being crowned Fall Festival Queen 60 years ago, and was completely surprised to be named grand marshal at this year's Pony Wagon Days, which is the same festival with a different name.

"I didn't believe it at first," Eaton said. "I never thought it would happen to me."

Eaton is a retired teacher who taught first and second grade at South Ward school and spent 35 years in the Troy school system.

She has been a villager since she was three years old, attending school in St. Paris and living in the same house for 56 years.

"I have a lot of roots here," she said.

Eaton has not slowed down a bit since she retired from teaching in 1997. She sits on the boards of the Graham

Citizen Staff Report

Fonda Lou Eaton of St. Paris has received the Distinguished Citizen for Art Education Award from an organization that recognizes those who promote the arts in their communities.

Eaton was recognized by the Central Ohio Art Education Association, a regional branch of the Ohio Art Education Association. The state group is a professional organization for art educators in Ohio.

A primary school teacher for 42 years in Urbana and Troy, Eaton said most districts first cut art, music and physical education, when it comes to budget cutbacks. When she retired in 1997, Eaton wanted to be involved in promoting local art activities for youngsters outside the classroom.

She serves as a trustee of the Champaign County Arts Council. She is active in children's programs and outreach projects involving the local elderly population. Eaton is a member of the Champaign County Memorial Foundation.

Claiming she has "no artistic creativity at all," Eaton was involved in bringing the Ohio State Alumni Band for a performance not long ago.

But carrying out the law will be a mad scramble for states, especially Republican-led ones where officials had hoped this day wouldn't come. And the court added a new complication by giving individual states more leeway to turn down the law's expansion of Medicaid, expected to provide coverage to about 16 million uninsured people.

After the ruling, chances of repealing the entire law appear much slimmer for Republicans, although they will again make it an election rallying cry. However, a targeted repeal strategy aimed at individual components of the law including cost controls, taxes and spending cuts, may still work.

Vicki McCuiston of Driftwood, Texas, who shuttles between two part-time jobs and is uninsured, said the Supreme Court ruling has given her new hope. Her husband Dan has back problems so bad he can't go to work some days, and with a family history of skin cancer she is worried about a mole that she hasn't been able to get checked by doctors.

"Having access to health insurance that we can actually afford would allow us to improve our lives," McCuiston said Thursday.

Fonda Lou Eaton

Date: Dec. 12, 2018

Scriptures: Psalm 23 + Excerpts from John 14

I wonder if there's a back row in Heaven? If so, I bet Fonda Lou has already staked out her claim.

Like a lot of us, I feel terribly sad today. But I also feel very thankful and glad. I feel a deep sadness because I had come to love and admire Fonda very much and I feel our loss painfully.

Yet I am so thankful to have had the privilege of knowing her and being her pastor over these last 10 years. And I am truly happy, knowing she is in Heaven with God whom she loves so very much, and she is free of the bodily ills that made these few years difficult.

Fonda Lou had a long goodbye during her last month in Hospice care, but in many ways a very beautiful one – filled with tender mercies. Her faith in Christ was absolute.

The Hospice staff clearly loved her presence, in what I'd venture to say was the most lively Hospice room ever. Her attitude and good cheer were remarkable. She relished the time with family and friends she adored. Fonda was always teasing, joking and "talking smack" with her visitors, and vice versa.

Even I couldn't resist. When I went to see her the final time last Wednesday evening, Fonda seemed unresponsive as her condition had declined. While speaking to her, I said, "Fonda, you sure have a lot of people who love you," and then I added, "in spite of yourself."

All of us watched – and then had a great laugh – as Fonda very deliberately arched both her eyebrows in mock disdain.

Fonda Lou Allen was born to proud parents Jesse and Evelyn Allen on February 7, 1935. Just to put that date in perspective, Fonda came along just a month after the birth of Elvis Presley. Her Dad was a detective for the Penn Central Railroad.

Fonda Lou was baptized as a toddler in Columbus. At age 3, the Allen family moved to St. Paris, where Fonda Lou would live for the rest of her life. Immediately, the family began attending what was then St. Paris Methodist Episcopal Church.

She became the town's Fall Festival Queen in 1952, and graduated from St. Paris High School the next year as part of the illustrious "Class of 1953."

On Aug. 12, 1956, Fonda Lou married the love of her life, Donald Eaton. This was before air-conditioning, and Fonda recalled it was "hotter than the devil." The wedding was at the Urbana Methodist Church because our church was in the midst of a remodeling project.

Fonda and Don enjoyed 35 years of marriage before he was called home to Lord in July 1991.

Fonda graduated from Wilmington College in 1959 and began working as a teacher with Urbana City Schools. She continued there for seven years, teaching 1st and 2nd grade, before shifting to Troy City Schools, where she spent the rest of her career at Hook and Concord elementary schools. In 1990, Fonda was named Educator of the Year by the Troy Area Chamber of Commerce.

For 42 years, she never slowed down. She especially loved to travel, and dine out and visit with her many friends. Oh, and she loved to dance – sometimes with sound effects!

and 2nd grade, before shifting to Troy City Schools, where she spent the rest of her career at Hook and Concord elementary schools. In 1990, Fonda was named Educator of the Year by the Troy Area Chamber of Commerce.

Though she retired after 42 years, she never slowed down. She especially loved to travel, read, go to the theater, and dine out and visit with her many friends. Oh, and she was a rabid fan of the Ohio State Buckeyes – sometimes with sound effects!

Her involvement in her church and in community leadership in St. Paris and throughout Champaign County was prodigious, as the long list of organizations in her obituary makes clear.

As part of the Champaign County Arts Council, Fonda took great pleasure in seeing the summer "Concerts in the Park" series come to Harmon Park in St. Paris a couple times each August.

Angela Olejnick, who lived just a few doors down the street from Fonda for several years, remembers how Fonda helped her and her husband, Pete, when they started their food trailer business – Pa's Pork – in 2013. Fonda Lou called to see if Olejnick's might be interested in doing some "Concerts in the Park."

"It was the first job – the first dollar our business made," Angela noted, adding "Fonda continue to support and recommend us for years afterward. She was a beautiful example of humanity and our family was blessed to know her."

Her humanity and kindness came through in many ways. One of my favorite examples is from 2012 when Fonda was Grand Marshal for the Pony Wagon Days Parade, and she invited a little boy from the community to join her in the carriage as she rode down Main Street.

In addition to many deeply devoted and caring friends, Fonda Lou was especially blessed over these last few years by the love and support of her niece, Lisa Eaton Palmer, and Lisa's husband, Dave.

Lisa – often accompanied by Dave – was at Fonda Lou's side daily, and sometimes round the clock, throughout this past month. With great determination, Lisa did everything in her power to see that any request or need Fonda might have was taken care of.

Incidentally, you might say a prayer for Lisa every now and then, because I think Fonda left her a to-do list that will keep her busy for another five years or so. :-)

In addition to Lisa and Dave Palmer, Fonda Lou is survived by the Johnsons Paris "Class of 1953" members; her cousins, the Hannaford family of Indianapolis; Patti Lantz of Urbana; her brother and sister-in-law, Elizabeth and Charles Evans; nephew Kevin Eaton; great-nieces and nephew, Kelly Evans Wilson, Nicole Eaton Cooke, Stacy Eaton Clinard, Kyle Eaton, and Kristin Evans Freeman; great-grand-nephews and nieces, Emma, Elyse, and Eli Wilson; Isabella, Anna, Alexis and Is. Freeman, Kash Eaton, Lincoln Clinard, and a multitude of friends.

Fonda Lou was preceded in death by her parents, Evelyn Printz Allen and Jesse W. Allen; her husband, Donald E. Eaton; in-laws Mary Walborn Eaton and Howard Eaton; a special nephew, Kermit Evans; brother-in-law Kermit Eaton; sister-in-law Sondra Eaton, and special cousins, Josephine and Harold P. Shank.

Fonda Lou passed into everlasting life about 6:20 last Friday morning. She departed peacefully with her niece, Lisa, at her side.

Fonda is with the Lord, and she is free of every affliction and limitation that had plagued her. We can and do take great comfort in knowing this, despite the sting of loss and this temporary separation.

This past Sunday I reminded our Methodist congregation of how very much Fonda Lou loved her church and her church family. It's safe to say she felt the same about all of you gathered here today – and she would want each of you to know that

The truth is -- though she often pretended to be ornery and cantankerous -- Fonda Lou Eaton had a heart of gold.

Let us pray:

Thank you, Jesus, for your boundless love and amazing grace. Thank you for love and grace so many of us experienced in knowing Fonda Lou Eaton as our friend and loved one. Help us through this day and the days to come. In the name of Jesus

Saint Paris "Pony Wagon Town"

Saint Paris "Pony Wagon Town"

Dear Friends,
Since I want to share my wonderful celebration of being chosen Educator of the year in Troy, I am writing a note that I will copy for each of you. Enclosed is a newspaper item telling you what the paper thought was important.

Wednesday evening we were to pick up the gal I teach with and her hubby to go to the recognition dinner. When we arrived she came to the car to say her husband had a big problem and she needed me in the house to help. Naturally I hurried in and found 5 of my colleagues there with a camcorder, mink, and "diamond" tiarra. I had not known any of them, were doing anything about the dinner. I didn't mention it to them as they are all so busy and it was a bit expensive. They said "Did you think we'd miss it?" Well Don couldn't figure out what was going on so here he comes in. Finally they said, "Oh, someone else is coming before we leave." Lo and behold here came a stretch limo...white, driver in a tux, champagne etc. Well my mouth never shut, yakked a storm and drank the entire bottle, not just me, though. When we finally arrived at the Holiday Inn there were a gang from school waiting to photo all the arrival. Two little pupils, I had' last year were at the door to shake hands. Wore that old mink, tiarra and Don's gorgeous corsage right inside! Saw loads of folks from school etc. had a wonderful dinner, and more of the staff arrived. During the meeting and program it was announced that the jaycees were recognizing their bosses, too and one introduced was Andy Kenton, he had been in my first first grade in Urbana. You can imagine our surprise as neither of us knew the other was going to be there, it was super. After Pat Morris introduced me, Andy spoke a while, amazing what these former kids remember! When the evening was over, here came the second grade teacher in her van to take us back to the starting point, Don asked her where her champagne was and she said that her limo served Kool-aid What a blast we all had! The staff had totally chipped in on the limo and that meant so much to Don and me, they all said, "We wanted you to go in style!" What a great group.

My class hasn't allowed themselves to be left out one minute, when flowers arrive at the door, they always turn to me and say, "Look what people are sending us!" What a bunch! All in all it has just been wonderful for both Don and me, really a boost! I have heard from so many good friends and former pupils, teaching associates, grandparents who have attended our annual grandparents' lunch and administration personnel, really neat for them to take time to write this old first grade school marm!

I know mom would have shared with you much of this so am doing it for her, she knew I had been named and was so thrilled, Kermit Stockton called to say congratulations and said, "Your dad would have popped his shirt buttons on this Fonda Lou!" Oh, how I wish they could have been with us in person, but they were there in spirit I know. Thanks for letting me share, this happy occasion with you, hope I have not bored you too much.

Love,
Fonda Lou

of December.

Well I'll sign off. Hope
hood of you are doing well,
Hello to the family.

St. Paris woman named Distinguished Citizen for Art Education

Citizen Staff Report

Fonda Lou Eaton of St. Paris has received the Distinguished Citizen for Art Education Award from an organization that recognizes those who promote the arts in their communities.

Eaton

Eaton was recognized by the Central Ohio Art Education Association, a regional branch of the Ohio Art Education Association. The state group is a professional organization for art educators in Ohio.

A primary school teacher for 42 years in Urbana and Troy, Eaton said most districts first cut art, music and physical education, when it comes to budget cutbacks. When she retired in 1997, Eaton wanted to be involved in promoting local art activities for youngsters outside the classroom.

She serves as a trustee of the Champaign County Arts Council. She is active in children's programs and outreach projects involving the local elderly population. Eaton is a member of the Champaign County Memorial Foundation.

Claiming she has "no artistic creativity at all," Eaton was involved in bringing the Ohio State Alumni Band for a performance not long ago.

Note of Thanks

May we extend our most sincere thanks to this wonderful community for the many, many expressions of love and concern shown to us these past years.

The Golden Chain of Friendship

FRIENDSHIP is a GOLDEN CHAIN,

The links are friends so dear,

And like a rare and precious jewel

It's treasured more each year...

It's clasped together firmly

With a love that's deep and true,

And it's rich with happy memories

And fond recollections, too...

Time can't destroy its beauty

For, as long as memory lives,

Years can't erase the pleasure

That the joy of friendship gives...

For friendship is a priceless gift

That can't be bought or sold,

But to have an understanding friend

Is worth far more than gold...

And the GOLDEN CHAIN of FRIENDSHIP

Is a strong and blessed tie

Binding kindred hearts together

As the years go passing by.

Heartfelt thanks, at this special time, to the friends and family serving as pall bearers, to the ladies of the United Methodist Church for the delicious fellowship dinner, to the Richeson Wickham & Atkins Funeral Home for their compassionate handling of Don's funeral services, to Rita Zerkle for her beautiful and meaningful music, to Reverend Paul Windle and Pastor Doris Shover for their "from the heart" messages, to all who called, sent cards, flowers, food, contributed to the charities, and last, but certainly not least, to the friends at Evergreen Cemetery for their loving care.

May God Bless Each of You!

The words of the following poem by an unknown writer express the life of this member -

Take time to work -

It is the price of success.

Take time to think -

It is the source of power.

Take time to play -

It is the secret of perpetual youth.

Take time to read -

It is the fountain of wisdom.

Take time to be friendly -

It is the road to happiness.

Take time to laugh -

It is the music of the soul.

Take time to dream -

It is the road to greater vision.

Take time to give -

The day is too short to be selfish.

Take time to love and be loved -

It is the privilege of the gods.

EVELYN - MARIE - SESSE

In Loving Memory

(This poem was found in my Mom's Diaries, dated 1923)

CHOP OFF YOUR TRESSES & SHORTEN YOUR DRESSES
GO JUST AS FAR AS YOU DARE
ROLL DOWN YOUR STOCKING & TRY TO BE SHOCKING
DEAR GIRLIES, & SEE IF WE CARE
NOTHING SO DAPPER AS OUR MODERN FLAPPER
THEY TICKLE US NEARLY TO TEARS,
BUT IT'S THE OLD GRANNY WHO SURE GETS OUR NANNY
BY FLAPPING IN SPITE OF HER YEARS.
WHAT IS SO CLASSY AS YOU TRIPPING LASSIE?
SHORTENED HAIR LOOSE IN THE BREEZE.
SURELY SHE'S CLEVER & DON'T TELL HER NEVER
SHE SHOULDN'T BE SHOWING HER KNEES,
BUT LOOK AT THE OTHER, THAT PAINTED GRANDMOTHER..
THE SIGHT OF HER FAIR MAKES US RAVE.
THERE'S NOTHING TO SICKEN LIKE AN ELDERLY CHICKEN, WHO FLAPS WITH ONE FOOT IN THE GRAVE.

WHEN I WAS JUST A CHILD AT NINE,
LOVED TO PLAY IN DAD "ANTIQUE" CHEST.

DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP;
I AM NOT THERE. I DO NOT SLEEP.

I AM A THOUSAND WINDS THAT BLOW.
I AM THE DIAMOND GLINTS ON SNOW.

I AM THE SUNLIGHT ON RIPENED GRAIN.
I AM THE GENTLE AUTUMN RAIN.

WHEN YOU AWAKE IN THE MORNING'S HUSH
I AM THE SWIFT UPLIFTING RUSH OF QUIET BIRDS IN CIRCLED FLIGHT.
I AM THE SOFT STARS THAT SHINE AT NIGHT.

DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND CRY;
I AM NOT THERE. I DID NOT DIE.

AUTHOR UNKNOWN

AN ELLIOT HAD STRUCK UPON MY SOUL...

I FELT I HAD BEEN MADE CONTROL...

SO I VENTURED TO OPEN "MY LEGACY"...

THE SPIRITS OF MY OWN "PAST"...

JUST SEVENTEEN YEARS I WAS FIRST MARRIED...

SHE SAID THAT SHE HAD JUST MET THIS MAN...

"MY DAD, YOU ARE, I KNOW THE MAN..."

AND SHE HAD ONLY JUST MET HIM...

SHE HADN'T MET HIM AT ALL...

SHE'S WONDER WHAT SHE WAS WITH SHE WAS HAPPY...

SHE ANSWERED TO THAT, SHE WAS YOUR MOTHER...

THAT LEFT SHE HAD TO LEAVE TO GO...

MY LEGACY

WHEN I WAS JUST A CHILD AT BEST,
I LOVED TO PLAY IN OUR "ANTIQUE" CHEST..
MY GRANDMA'S DRESS & HAT I'D DON,
AND PRETEND ALL DAY TIL THE SUN WAS GONE.

PERCHANCE, I WANDERED UPON A BOOK,
PLOPPED DOWN AND HAD MYSELF A LOOK.
IT TOOK ME BACK IN TIME ONCE MORE..
MY MOM'S OLD DIARY, WITH PAGES TORE..
SO VERY FRAGILE WITH SUBSTANCE & THOUGHT...
OH, THE HAVOC IT CAUSED WHEN I GOT CAUGHT.

THE REST OF HER LIFE I CONTINUED TO TEASE,
"COME ON MOM, LET ME READ MORE, PLEASE!!"
SHE'D HID THEM AWAY, IN HER EYES THERE WAS MIRTH.
SHE'D ANSWER, "THEIR YOURS, WHEN I'M GONE FROM THIS EARTH."

WELL, MY MOM PASSED AWAY IN SUMMER THIS YEAR.
WE WERE OH, SO CLOSE & I MISS HER, SWEET DEAR.
TRUE TO HER WORD, HER DIARIES RECEIVED..
JUST COULDN'T READ YET, I WAS STILL TOO BEREAVED.

NOW FALL HAS STRUCK UPON MY SOUL..
I FELT I NOW HAD MORE CONTROL.
SO I VENTURED TO OPEN "MY LEGACY"..
THE DIARIES OF MY MOM "MARIE".

JUST SEVENTEEN WHEN SHE FIRST BEGAN..
SAID THAT SHE HAD JUST MET THIS MAN..
(MY DAD, YOU SEE, I KNEW THE END)
AND SHE HAD ONLY JUST BEGAN.....

HER INNERMOST THOUGHTS AND FEELINGS HEREON.
SHE'D WONDER WHO'D READ THESE WHEN SHE WAS GONE??
THE ANSWER TO THAT, SHE HAD YOU SEE...
THAT GIFT SHE MEANT TO LEAVE TO ME.....

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

Dwight R. Smith

— Dwight R. Smith

Dec. 21, 1927 — Oct. 17, 2007

Dwight Richard Smith went home to be with the Lord on Oct. 17, 2007, at Saint John's Medical Center, surrounded by his family.

Born Dec. 21, 1927, in Mahomet, Ill., Dwight lived in Madison County most of his life. Known by many as "Smitty," he retired from Delco Remy after 40 years of service. He attended Belmont Bible Church, where he drove the church bus for many years.

Dwight was an active member of Ovid Community Church, where he served in the Friday Night Country Kitchen, preparing meals for the community.

Dwight was a walking miracle. About three years ago, he entered test treatments for macular degeneration and completely regained his vision. These treatments earned him his 15 minutes of fame when he was interviewed multiple times by reporters from Indianapolis for WTHR-TV's "Eyewitness News."

Dwight was a gifted craftsman and handyman. He loved spending time with his family (especially on family vacations) and watching basketball. He was his grandchildren's biggest fan and never missed any games.

He was preceded in death by his father, Lewis Perry Smith; mother, Marie Smith; and brother, Wallace Smith.

Dwight is survived by Patricia, his loving wife of 61 years; his children, Karen Landes (Bob), Terry Smith (Sharon), Cathy Danner (Mike) and Emily Eskew (Randy). He is also survived by grandchildren, Alan Landes (Tandi), Eric Danner (Lisa), Lori Schulz (Scott), Amy Danner, Amanda Spencer (Richard), Kaley Smith, Kara Holman (Mike), Alissa, Jessica and Nellie Eskew, Tony Floyd (Lynn), Danny Floyd (Cecilea), Jackie Black (Gary). Dwight was very proud of his great-grandchildren, Brynden Danner, Sam and Nicholas Danner, Olivia and Anna Landes, Clara and Cohen Schulz, soon-to-be-born baby girl, Spencer, Taylor and Evan Floyd, Hannah Floyd, Gary, Elijah, Andrew, Levi and Skylar Black, Shana, Cody and Courtlyn Miller; sister, Wanda Wetz; brother-in-law, Bud Highbaugh (Cynthia); sister-in-law, Naomi Highbaugh; and many nieces and nephews. He was Poppop to all that knew him — countless "adopted grandchildren" will miss him greatly.

Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. today at Robert D. Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory, South Chapel, 200 W. 53rd St., Anderson. Services will be Saturday at 1 p.m. with visitation one hour before service. Pastor Keith Wooden will officiate. Burial will be in Anderson Memorial Park Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Midwest Eye Foundation, c/o Thomas Ciulla, 201 Pennsylvania Parkway, Indianapolis, IN 46280 or online to the American Cancer Society.

Patty was the kindest person I have ever had the pleasure to know. She treated me as her own especially after the loss of my mother. I have so many fond memories of camping with the family @ Morse Reservoir when Emily & I were teens. She loved her family dearly & leaves a wonderful legacy of love & kindness in her children, grandchildren, & great grandchildren. I will miss her infectious smile. Hugs, love, & prayers for her family during such a sad & difficult time.

Odd jobs — The work is never done around this Anderson funeral home says Brian Vaughn, a recent graduate of Anderson High School. Vaughn, who has decided to become a funeral director, started his present job about two years ago through the Co-operative Education program at AHS which allows students to work and attend classes. Vaughn will begin his two-year course toward a career as a mortician and funeral director at Vincennes University this fall. His job includes everything from cutting the grass to directing traffic.

Vaughan selects undertaking

AHS Co-op provides a strange career choice

By RANDY MURDOCK
Herald youth correspondent

Brian Vaughan, a recent graduate from Anderson High School has been seen of late at the fourth largest funeral home in Anderson. He is not dying to get in — he works there as an assistant.

The assistant "human eraser," as he is known in C.B. language, has been working at the funeral home for 23 months. During those two years, he has witnessed an autopsy, seen all of the human organs and been on numerous death calls. This involves a death in which the funeral home workers must go to the scene and remove the body.

WHEN HE IS not working inside the building, Brian can be found keeping the grounds looking neat or working on one of the home's three automobiles. "The work is never done around a funeral home," he explained.

He acquired this job through Co-op, a class in which the student goes to school and works to receive credit, and attributes his involvement to a friend who visited from Australia.

"He was studying at a funeral school in Indianapolis and worked at a funeral home," Brian noted. "I talked with him and found out what I wanted to do."

IF HE IS helping to prepare a corpse, the very serious college bound student works on the embalming as well as dressing and bathing. Brian also offered, "I learn something new everyday."

Other tasks included in his job are dusting coffins and helping customers select burial clothing, though it is preferred that clothes be provided by the family.

During funeral services, he parks cars but cannot drive them because that requires a chauffeurs license. He places flags on the automobiles, readies the coffins to go out and often finds himself standing in the middle of the street directing traffic.

THE FUTURE funeral home director admitted that working at a funeral home has prepared him in case someone in his family or a friend should die.

"I enjoy the work because it helps me understand people," remarked the minister's son.

Part of Brian's reason for choosing this profession is that his father always told him he should help people. Brian feels the best way he can help is by comforting the family of the deceased and by preparing them for the initial shock.

THE GRADUATE of AHS plans to go to Vincennes University to take funeral service education. He must attend one year of college and one year of embalming school. The classes will include embalming, restorative art, pathology, anatomy, bacteriology, chemistry and mortuary management.

Restorative art is his favorite class. The mortician is often called upon to rebuild the entire face with a wax process. The art of rebuilding is known as restorative art.

Despite his joking attitude he is very serious about his work. Another big part of his job is to assist with cremation, which includes transporting the body to Muncie as well as preparing it for the urn.

HE DOESN'T believe in ghosts. He has seen muscle flexes while the cadaver is on the prep table. When he first started working, some of the sights made him feel uneasy and he admits you never quite get used to it. But it doesn't seem to bother him as much as it did when he first began.
